Topic: Resource Sharing/New Modalities in Career Counseling

Moderator: Lynn Berger

Guest Speaker: David Laks

In our ever-changing field, there are many new “Modalities in Career Counseling”. This final meeting before the summer break will give members the chance to share approaches they find useful in their practice. Members are invited to speak about any of their non-traditional/multi-modal approaches including use of technology and unusual resources/techniques they have discovered.

Please e-mail Lynn Berger lbcoach@prodigy.net to let her know what you would like to discuss.

In addition to our own member input, we have a talented guest speaker.

David Laks, a media guru who specializes in self-presentation will demonstrate the use of video clips for LinkedIn and websites (for clients and counselors) to present your "elevator pitch" or explain your services
